

DATA FOR ADVISING SYMPOSIUM 2017

March 1, 2017 • Room 123 • Nursing and Allied Health Building • Gordon State College • 419 College Drive Barnesville, GA

Building on Complete College America's Guided Pathways to Success and the Lumina Foundation's Beyond Financial Aid, this workshop will explore strategies for advisors, institutional researchers and others on campus to collect and analyze data to strengthen advising practices. This workshop will provide institutional examples of data collection and analysis, effective approaches to establishing relationships between advisors and institutional researchers, as well as practical ways to inform decision making. Following the presentation of these examples, presenters will lead sessions to discuss implementation in more detail with institutional teams.
